

K-Love services my heart and mind and that services my community.
So many souls would be lost, If we went to a LPFM broadcaster providing other programming.
Last but not least I believe that without a program like K-Love, so many people would not know where to turn when in need of help from the bible and not of the world. The music and the word is what we need to hear.